DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over the eBay.com website ("ebay"). Ebay discloses a network-based facility (see enclosed website/page) that contains a bidding/purchase satisfaction index. This index ranges from 0% to 100% based on past purchasing, bidding, selling and payment of the party. Further, ebay has a mechanism in place, which is reachable via either e-mail or telephone to allow for the arbitration and refund to an injured party if specific purchasing/bidding criteria is not followed. Further, ebay provides for reporting and suspense of ones ability to use the facility under given circumstances.
